*Pursuant to Sec. 184.06 of the City of Safety Harbor Comprehensive Zoning and Land Development Code, a minor subdivision is a subdivision containing not more than four (4) lots and not involving the creation of any new street, any new access or the extension of other public facilities. A minor subdivision in which two lots are proposed to be created from a single parcel of land may be approved by the Technical Review Committee upon a finding of consistency with all applicable code standards. A minor subdivision involving the creation of three or four lots is subject to site plan review and approval by the City Commission. However, the City Commission may waive the final requirement for final subdivision plat review.
