

Home Delivery Brings the Library to You!

Are you or someone you know unable to leave home, but would love to get library books, movies, audiobooks, or music CDs?

You may be eligible for free library home delivery.

If you have an e-reader and Internet access, ask your Library Ambassador about downloading e-books, movies, and e-magazines.

Library Home Delivery patrons may call to request information or ask for specific materials. We will also recommend titles for you based on what you like to read. A Library Outreach Ambassador will drop off and pick up items at your home or assisted living facility on a bi-monthly basis.

Safety Harbor Public Library's collection includes audiobooks, DVDs, large print books, music CDs, magazines, newspapers, e-books, e-magazines, streaming movies, and more.

All items are checked out with a PPLC library card and are delivered and returned by a Library Outreach Ambassador.

To enroll or schedule a delivery call 727-724-1525 x 4107 or email outreach@cityofsafetyharbor.com.

A free service for Safety Harbor and local residents unable to visit the Library.

SAFETY HARBOR
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Who can receive free home delivery?

Library home delivery is available to City of Safety Harbor and local residents of all ages who are unable to get to the library due to lack of transportation, illness, injury, or disability. This free service is available on a long term or temporary basis.

What can be delivered?

Books, DVDs, audiobooks, music CDs, magazines or just about any item the library offers.

How does home delivery work?

- Obtain a library card if you don't have one.
- Complete the application in this brochure and return it to the library.
- We will contact you to schedule a visit and determine your eligibility and needs.
- Once your service starts, an Outreach Ambassador will deliver items to your door bi-monthly.
- When new materials arrive at your door, return items to the Outreach Ambassador.
